How can I get on the first page of Google?

If I have a food catering website, what would I have to do to get on the first page of Google with a keyword of "catering". The search term suggestion tool said it was searched only 450 times, which I am taking as not being very competitive.

Therefore, does the website have any chance of getting on the first page of Google organically? Thank you since its not very competitive you could get on the first page of google fast!

visit freewebsitetraffic.tv

they will show you how to get ranked from page of the google search engine in 24 hours!

hope i helped you!
